

read more...

Continued from February 2008 CTI Newsletter

Stage Lighting Super Saturday Show Report

CTI exhibited at the 3rd Annual Stage Lighting Super Saturday at the beautiful LaGuardia High School for the Performing Arts on Saturday January 26, 2008. Scott Parker and lighting legend Sonny Sonnenfeld put this together each year and aim the content at young technicians looking to get a good overview of technology in one day. There were exhibits by manufacturers, including City Theatrical, Altman, Apollo, Barbizon, Field Template, GAM, High End, Lee, Lehigh Electric, Lycian, Martin, Nemetschek, Sea Changer, Osram, PDO, Robert Juliat, Rosco, Selecon, Strand, Strong, Times Square Lighting and Wybron.

The keynote speaker was designer Ken Billington who gave a great talk about how he got into show business and what the life of the professional designer is like. Every speaker that followed spoke about how inspiring Ken was to their professional lives and to the industry.

Other speakers included:

- Pete Borchetta on Stage Lighting
- John Fahnestock on Lighting Fixtures
- Rich Dale on Color and Scrollers
- Pascal Zandt on Gobos and Rotators
- Matt DeLong on Projections and Effects
- John Gebbie on Consoles
- Holmes Brown on Dealers and Rentals
- Eric Cornwell on Pre-lighting
- Bobby Harrell on Programming
- Frank Brault on CAD
- Steve Shelley on Paperwork
- Chip Scott on Automated Lighting
- Gary Fails on Wireless DMX

Scott Parker

Ken Billington

February 2008 Stage Lighting Super Saturday Show Report

The legendary Sonny Sonnenfeld

Attendees of Stage Lighting Super Saturday

Exhibitors and attendees on the stage

Ted and Irene Ohl of PDO