Death Drop London

"It feels so humbling to be opening a brand new show in the West End as part of the comeback of British Theatre. We all know how hard things have been, and Death Drop is the perfect way for theatre to make people laugh and have a great night out again! The laughter we've heard all throughout previews is testament to the importance of theatre in our lives, to offer escapism and what better tonic for that than Drag!"

- Jack Weir, Lighting Designer, Death Drop London (Read the Designer Q&A)
